Take a stroll through Lamplight Village...

The timeless vision of acclaimed artist Thomas Kinkade, the Painter of Light™, brings us back to idyllic memories of home and the warm traditions we'll remember and treasure for a lifetime. In 1995, his Lamplight Village masterfully depicted a charming and peaceful place preserved in time.

This same rustic, homespun enchantment captured so brilliantly in his work is the inspiration behind the Thomas Kinkade's Lamplight Village Collection, available exclusively from Hawthorne Village, a division of The Bradford Exchange.

A cozy village of light and nostalgia you'll want to return to again and again!

Welcome home! Let's take a stroll down memory lane, shall we? As a summer sunset begins its descent, another glorious day turns into a perfect evening. We walk past cozy cottage-style buildings—each fully-sculpted and meticulously hand-painted—their windows aglow with welcoming radiance. The local florist stands at her flower cart, surrounded by robust blooms and colorful hues of seasonal bouquets. As a horse-drawn carriage casually rolls along, the Windermer Church prepares for tomorrow's congregation. The Pastry Shop across the bridge—and the baker's cart outside—tempts us with the aroma of enticing treats. As musicians rehearse and children play in front of the illuminating Gazebo, a lovestruck couple enjoys a late picnic while a fisherman and his devoted pal sit patiently along Lamplight Creek. Throughout the village, working lamplights cast a warm and inviting glow. It's a peaceful scene tailor-made for a Thomas Kinkade painting—as the Painter of Light™ himself can be found capturing this idyllic moment of serene beauty.
